Accreditation

Accreditation is available at Level 6 * of the National Framework for Higher Education Qualifications (F.H.E.Q.) powered by a leading UK University Business School. This can not only assist your organisational objectives to improve retention and recruitment but also supports the delegate on their Continuous Personal Development (C.P.D) objectives. The accreditation credits can also later for example be put towards a Degree or MBA.

Organisational Growth

We believe an organisation's needs and objectives should be clear and concise and that your team's skills and experience should align - sounds simple but in reality the gap is often challenging!

We start by listening and making sure we understand the organisational needs then help align your most valuable asset to assist achieving these goals
